Hello, Chris:

I don't know how thoroughly you may have checked Vigo Co. census records, but I was led to the 1870 Otter Creek Twp census because of finding a William M. McKimmey marriage to a Paulina Wood – all (apparently) of Otter Creek Twp on Nov. 13, 1878.

In the 1870 Otter Creek census a Perlina Wood, 8, is the daughter of a Daniel Wood on pg. 271. Perlina is, I think, "Paulina" though I'm just guessing at that. I discovered that on the preceding page, pg. 270, there is a single William McKimmey, 46, with two teenage sons Frank and Winfield apparently connected to the household of a Dr. Isaac Whitaker born in SC but living in Otter Creek Twp.

Is it possible that this Wm McKimmey married Perlina/Paulina 8 years later in Nov. 1878? She would have been 16 and he 54. To "muddy the waters still further," I have checked the indexes to Vigo Co. probate records and found a probate for a William McKinney with dates of March 23, 1875 and Dec. 21, 1876 and the estate was settled in Nov. 1879. So I guess this man could NOT have fathered the William McKinney buried at the Markle Cemetery with dates of 1882-1954.

I think you will HAVE to get the 1954 death certificate for the William McKinney who is buried at Markle along with Wallace McKinney (1889-1951) and their mother(?) Purline McKinney (1861-1935). Have you already ordered that death certificate? There is a $6 fee per certificate etc. etc. The certificates are supposed to name the parents of the deceased IF the survivors knew.

Must close now and work on other requests at the desk but you can tell me your thoughts on the matter. Perhaps you have already stumbled into this matter before now?

Hello David,

Thanks for talking with me this morning about the McKimmey family of Otter Creek. Since there is no 1890 census record, and no old cemetery records for Markle cemetery, my best guess is that William M. McKimmey is the son of William McKimmey Sr., but I can't prove that.

Here is an updated file for the family that you can add to the surname index at the library. If you ever find out more info about the McKimmey's buried in markle cemetery Please let me know. Thanks again for all your help!!

Subject: How are things in TH?

2168 S.W. Church Rd.
Bluffton, In 46714

Good morning David!

I was wondering how things are going down in TH. It looks like much of the strong storms have hit southern Indiana!! Tuesday night we had a Tornado warning here in Wells County, but luckly no Tornados!! I have still been researching and have made contact with a Mark Neice from down in TH. He has provided me with a photo of Frank McKimmy's grave stone. On the stone it has Franks last name spelled McKimmy! I received a copy of Frank's death certificate and it said Frank McKinney!! I found a copy of Frank's wife Anna McKimmy's obit, it said Anna McKimmy! Very strange! This has been a fun experience uncovering my relatives down in TH. I had no idea there were so many McKimmy (McKimmey) cousins down there!!! I couldn't have done it with out you!! You have been instrumental in this success!!

Thanks again!

Dear David,

Here is more information regarding the McKimmy family that I have collected. I have enclosed my line which begins with James McKimmy in 1835 in Preston County West Virginia. I then have an updated file for Nathaniel McKimmy of North Carolina. Included with this are copies from a book by Frank McKimmey which I found. It has a lot of information regarding the North Carolina McKimmy's and also shows Gideon McKimmy's last will. Last I have enclosed copies of Silas McKinney-McKimmey. This information was given to me by Barbara Chisler, who is a direct ancestor of Silas. I think I am close, but I don't see how Silas is fitting in the family???

I would like you to keep this information on file there at the library and share it with any McKimmy relatives. I would appreciate it if this information is not published or put on the internet at this time. I am in the early stages of writing another McKimmy book and I would like to include the Indiana McKimmy's in it.

Let me know what you think, and let me know if you have any idea's on how Silas might fit in with the family.

Thanks again for all you have done and are doing for me!!

Sincerely,

MARYLAND
Dorchester and Caroline Counties ---- Footnotes
Elijah McKimmey and John McKimmey

Dr. Kenneth Carroll's book, "Joseph Nichols and the Nicholites," shows that Elijah Mackimmey was a witness to the marriage of Edward Beck and Arimenti Wilson, both of Kent County, July 1, 1770. On December 10, 1775, he was a witness to the marriage of Solomon Bartlett and Mary Victor. Solomon Bartlett was from Caroline County and Mary Victor from Dorchester County.

On November 1, 1826, John McKimmey, of Guilford County, North Carolina, filed in the records of Caroline County, Maryland (Land Record Book Liber P - J. R., Page 352) a Power-of-Attorney, from his wife, Rachel Vane McKimmey, of Guilford County, North Carolina, authorizing him, as her legal representative, to represent her in the settlement of the estate of her father, John Vane, of Caroline County. In his will, John Vane, left all of his real property to his daughter, Rachel Vane McKimmey.

On that same date, Nov. 1, 1826, there is a deed between John McKimmey, legal representative of Rachel Vane McKimmey, and Jacob Andrew, of Caroline County. For the sum of $150, John McKimmey conveyed to Jacob Andrew, a parcel of land called "Littleton's Friendship" containing 20 acres.

Roger McKimmey

In 1753, Liber 34, Folio 237, the records show that in the settlement of the estate of Roger McKimmey, payments were made to Powell, Isaac, Rebecca and Sarah Cox (children of Daniel Cox). The widow of Daniel Cox intermarried with Roger McKimmey, and the children were sharing in the estate of Daniel Cox which his wife received prior to her marriage to Roger McKimmey.

In the margin of the Inventory Goods and Chattels of Roger McKimmey, the names "Thomas McKimmey" and "Jeremiah McKimmey" appeared. This is the only reference to Thomas McKimmey that appeared in the Dorchester County records. In 1756, Jeremiah McKimmey's name appeared in the "Debt Book" for Dorchester County. The notation stated "Paid for his wife -London".

MCKIMMEYS IN GUILFORD COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA (1790 to 1840) (1)

As shown by Dr. Kenneth Carroll, of Easton Maryland, in his book, "Joseph Nichols and the Nicholites," which is "A look at the new Quakers of Maryland, Delaware, North and South Carolina," many of the McKimmeys of Dorchester and Caroline Counties, Maryland (as well as their friends and relatives) were Nicholites. Many of these people left Maryland and went to Guilford County, North Carolina. In some respects they were even more austere than the Quakers. Many of them joined the Quakers in North Carolina.

Beginning in 1790, with the marriage of William McKimmey to Ellinor James, and 1792, with the marriage of Nathaniel McKimmey to Rachel Bishop (the Bishops were also Nicholites), all of the male children of William McKimmey (who died in Dorchester County, Maryland about 1768) appeared in the records in Guilford County, North Carolina, as did John McKimmey (son of Elijah McKimmey, of Dorchester and Caroline Counties, Maryland). As shown in the section covering Maryland records, John McKimmey, who was living first in Orange and then in Guilford County, North Carolina, came back to Maryland, in 1804, and again in 1826, to participate in settlements of the estates of his mother's (Elizabeth Sullivan McKimmey) relatives, and also his wife's (Rachel Vane McKimmey) relatives (father, John Vane).

The censuses of Guilford County, from 1800 to 1840, show Nathaniel, William and John; however, the most conclusive evidence is the land records. Between 1795 and 1839, there are 16 entries (deeds, grants, powers-of attorney) under the names of John, Nathaniel, William, Rachel, James, Shadrach and Jesse McKimmey (spelled McKimmey, McKemmy, McKemmie, MCCimmy) Gideon McKimmey's will is also on file there in Guilford County (spelling McKemma).

Nathaniel McKimmey and his family went to Indiana somewhere around 1815. (See Indiana Records) Gideon McKimmey died in North Carolina in 1809. His sons went to Indiana. John McKimmey and his wife, Eliza McQuiston (McCuiston) went to Alabama around 1836, then on to Mississippi.

(1) The male children of William McKimmey and Elijah McKimmey (probably brothers) of Dorchester and Caroline Counties, Maryland, went to Guilford County, North Carolina sometime between about 1790 and 1800.
